Farewell, I've Gone Away

An Angel whispered take my hand and come with me your life story is finished, your work here is done.

I went away to a place where there are no tears, nor sorrow only laughter and smiles, there will always be a Tomorrow.

As I move amongst the clouds. I'll look down and smile upon you, while the angels sing a heavenly song.

I am not alone all who went before me
are here they awaited my return.

I know you'll grieve and wish I was still here

I am here in the memories you hold dear.

Remember how much

I love you and know

I took your love with me.

I did not wish for you to cry,
nor feel sad.

My pain is gone and I am Free!
Soon you'll come to me, until then

God will be with you

Just as He's with me.

Love ya Willie Jr. Brinson

Reflection of Life

*'To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.
2 Corinthians 5:8*

A Time to be Born: Ecclesiastes 3:2

Mr. Willie Alphonso Brinson, Jr. was born on March 6, 1947 to the late Mr. Willie Brinson, Sr. and the late Mrs. Minnie Mikell-Brinson in Bryan County.

A Time to Live and Serve: Isaiah 38:16 and Romans 12:1

Willie attended the public schools of Bryan County School System. He joined Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church at an early age where he served on the Usher Board.

A Time to Die: Luke 2:29-30

Willie wrote the final chapter of his life story on January 11, 2013 while being a resident of the Savannah Hospice House. Willie has written his life story by the life which he lived. During the night while reaching for his Father's hand, he allowed him to complete the final chapter of his life story.

A Time to Rejoice: Ecclesiastes 3:4

Willie leaves to cherish his precious and lovable memories, brother Mr. Roger Lee Brinson of Ft. Lauderdale, FL, a very devoted cousin and friend, Ms. Doreatha Smith-Moore of Ellabel, GA, four aunts, Ms. Geraldine Green of Savannah, GA, Ms. Susie M. Brown of Ellabell, GA, Ms. Willie P. Mikell of Walthourville, GA, and Ms. Mary Smith of Chicago, IL, he also leaves a great deal of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends that will greatly miss him.
